A report obtained in New York, on Saturday, that the Dry-goods Jobbing firm of Lane, Boyce & Co., Late W. G. Law & Co., have asked for an extension on their maturing liabilities of one year. The old house, it will be remembered, suspended tempora-rily in the panic of 1857. Their Southern trade, this season, proves lighter than they had prepared themscives for, and their collections rather backward.

RIVER NEWS.

Tift Ohio continues to recede gradually at this port, having declined during the twenty-four hours ending last evening, about four or five inches six feet. The River was stationary at Pittsburg. with three feet seven inches there at noon.

The weather, restering, continued warm just enough o for comfort-and entirely delightful in every particular-clear, bright and beautiful, with a pure and delicious atmosphere. As far as weather occurred, there is nothing at present left to de pure and delicious almosphere. As far as weather is concerned, there is nothing at present left to desire.

Eusiness on the Landing was rather dull yesterday, and freights were offered sparingly at the rates previously quoted. The number of boats at the Whart was small, not over fifteen or sixteen between Main and Broadway.

Yesterday's Louisville Coerier remarks:
The river continues to fall rather fast, with three feet six inches water in the Canal last evening by the reark. During the provious twenty fear hours, the river at the head of the Fails and recorded two inches, and as inches at Portland, leaving less than aix feet water on the bar. The weather was warm run cloudy, with a thunder-sterm at noon, followed by a light sprinkle of rain.

When backing out fir in Mason City, Wednesday, the Reliance struck a log, breaking about twenty five timburs, making ber leak badly. About 19 barrels of sait were thrown overboard to prevent her sinking. The Logan came to her assignance with a flat in tow, and rook of part of her freight, when the pumps were rigged and the leak stopped.

Friday's Memphis Avidanche observes:

Friday's Memphis Assistanche observes:
The John Gault arrived from Louisville yesterilay with a fair freight, including 250 tuns, which she reshipped on the Belinst and Mears. The Gault brought twenty-one bates of the staple.
The Arizona arrived from New Orleans yesterday, light. She obtained 350 bales of cotton at this point for the Ohio River.
The Masonic Gem arrived from White River, yesterday with fourteen bales of cotton. She has been engaged in wrecking the Fortune, annik some time since, above Augusta, and brought down that boat's machinery, rashin furniture, etc. Her commander is undecided, a d don't know where to go with his craft. The Have Dell is in the same flux.
The Mississippi River at St. Louis, at last accounts by mail, was receding slowly, with five feet scent at Cairo, and six and a half feet between Cairo Friday's Memphis Avalanche observes: scant at Caire, and six and a half feet between Caire nd Memphis. Business at the St. Louis Landing continues very dull, with few steamers in port, continues very dull, with few steamers in port.

The Illinois River is falling, with thirty inches in the channel to Naples, twenty-two inches between Naples and Peoria, and twenty inches between Peoria and Lavalle

The Upper Mesissippi is falling from St. Paul down, according to last accounts. There are nine fect on the Upper, twenty-five inches on the Gewer Eaples and three and a half feet full between Keokini and this pert.

The Missouri is in a wretched condition, with three and a half feet in the channel from Weston down to the mouth, and three feet above Weston.

The river is full of songs and said lears are plenty.

MEDICAL AND DENTAL.

DR. JAMES. M EDICAL NOTICE D.R. JAMES, PORMERLY OF CUSTOM House-street, New Orlssas, has arrived in Cincinnati, and has established an office at 79 west Fourth-street, from room, in stairs, one duer below Pike's Opera-brune, for the curse of old chronic, mercurial, syphilite and private infirmities, without mercury, hindrance from business, or exposure to friends.

The unparalleled success which has attended Dr.
James a practice to Kew Orleans, for the last eleven years, and also, in the principal cities of the United States, the many remarkable curse he has effected, which were pronounced incurable by high medical authority, and the encominum of the almost entire Southern press, should convince the most steptical as to Dr. I. sabilities to treat disease.

The following are some of the diseases termed pricate, of which Dr. James devotes his particular attention, via: Syphilis, Primary, Secondary and Tertiary, Stricture, Urrethral Bischarges, Gleet, Gonorrhos, Noctornal and Distrial Ends of the Back and Lotins, Sheumathen, Hydrocule,
